Senate Acts With Record Speed on Post Office Funds

Bill to Go To President By Tonight

Full Senate Acts 30 Minutes After Committee Oke

WASHINGTON — The Senate quickly approved by voice vote today a House passed 41 million dollar emergency appropriation to restore normal postal service.

The action came a scant 10 minutes after the Senate met at noon and unanimously agreed to suspend its rules and take up the measure immediately.

IT HAD BEEN approved less than a half hour, earlier by the Senate Appropriations Committee in a 10-minute closed door session.

The bill, carrying a total of $49,861,000 for the Post Office and several other agencies, was returned to the House for concurrence in minor Senate amendments.

THE POSTAL figure was 4-million dollars six, million short of what Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield requested.

The swift Senate action required barely 40 minutes from the opening of the special Appropriations Committee session to final Senate passage.

Committee Chairman Carl Hayden (D-Ariz.) asked and got unanimous consent to suspend Senate rules and take up the emergency appropriation immediately.

SUMMERFIELD, who cut back postal services drastically last Saturday, has said he can not restore full service until the emergency bill is signed by the President.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California and House GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts told Eisenhower at a White House legislative conference that the appropriation might clear the Senate this afternoon and reach the White House tonight.

Armstrong Named To Navy Post

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today nominated J. Sinclair Armstrong, now chairman of the Securities & Exchange Commission, to be assistant secretary of Navy.

Armstrong, a Chicago lawyer, has served as SEC chairman since May, 1955. He was named to the Navy Department vacancy created by the elevation of William B. Franke to undersecretary.

Other nominations included: A. Pratt Kessler, Salt Lake City, for reappointment as U.S. district attorney for Utah.

Late News Bulletins

NEW YORK UP — Stocks did a lot of moving around today but on average finished just about where they had started. Aluminum was an upside feature, rising around 3 at its high and touching a new top.

IAS VEGAS, Nev. UP — The Atomic Energy Commission has rescheduled for 9 p. m., tonight, its highly classified weapons test which was postponed several times last week.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. UP — Sen. Karl Munit (R-S.D.) said today teamsters president Dave Beck is going to have a chance to "put up or shut up" as soon as possible before the Senate Rackets group.

WASHINGTON UP — A story of violence, strong-armed tactics, threats and rigged elections in a teamsters union local at Scranton, Pa., was unfolded today before the Senate Rackets Committee. Testimony was given by Paul Bradshaw, ex-union steward.

CANDIDATES FOR THE presidency of the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce, Robert Schlesinger and Frank Allen have started active campaigning, with the election to be held by the organization in April 25. Schlesinger, 29, an attorney with the firm of Schlesinger and Slaughter, is married and has no children. He has been in the JayCees for a year and a half and is a graduate of Southern California law school. Allen, 31, manager of Community TV Corp., is married and has three children. He has been in the JayCees for two years, is a graduate of Northwestern University and formerly was administrative advisor to the Board of Directors of Paramount Pictures. (Desert Sun Photo).

Juvenile Invasion of Village Mild, 10 Arrested in 4 Days

The first wave of long-anticipated two-week juvenile inundation broke with surprisingly mild effects on Palm Springs over the week end as thousands of teenagers moved into the city.

But city police viewed with trepidation the forthcoming weekend, when the main brunt of Easter vacationing youngsters is expected to hit the village.

Despite a comparatively small arrest record, city police who this year took a "no fooling" attitude, severely chided up four action-packed days marked by around-the-clock complaints.

EIGHT JUVENILES were arrested for petty theft on complaint of hotel owners who found their outdoor lounge chairs stripped of pads. Four of the youths drew sentences of $25 fines or five days in jail from Judge Eugene Theriault. The other four were sent home.

One 19-year-old boy drew the

Jordan King Wins First Round in Power Struggle

By UNITED PRESS

King Hussein restored stability to Jordan for the time being today, but the struggle for power in that impoverished Middle East land was far from over.

A new government purged of Communists and extremists and headed by Dr. Hussein Khalidi, a Palestinian with some sympathies for the West but with a bitter hatred of Zionism and Israel, had the difficult job of mapping Jordan's future between the contending East and West.

Jordan's reason for existence was largely eliminated with the recent abrogation of the pact which made it the base for stationing British troops in the Mideast and the recipient of British subsidies to keep its economy solvent. But it still is involved in the great power struggle between the block of Arab states dominated by Egypt and the more pro-Western Arab states led by Iraq.

NEED HELP IN HOUSE, USE THE SUN RESULT ADS

Whether you're looking for a cook, butler, bottle-washer or someone to baby-sit, the best way to find your man (or woman) is through the well-read Classified Ad columns of the Desert Sun.

That's the unabashed opinion of such satisfied Sun citizens as Mrs. Paul Greening, of 325 Mountain View Boulevard, who reported "excellent results" with her Sun Ad for a cook and housekeeper.

Mrs. Greening advised that she enjoyed instant results from a Sun Ad that read:

"$200 a month for cook and housekeeper, (two adults) must be experienced, live in or out." Hiring or buying, renting or selling, the most effective means of reaching a waiting public is as close to you as your telephone.

Ewing Scott Admits to Alias Use

Murder Suspect Confesses to Real Name in Detroit

DETROIT — Inspector Leon Blythe of the U.S. Immigration Service said a man stopped at the Canadian border admitted today his real identity is Leonard Ewing Scott, 60, Los Angeles investment counselor charged with murdering his wife.

The mystery of the disappearance of Scott's wife has never been solved.

THE MAN, WHO gave his name as Lewis E. Stewart, 50, Toledo, Ohio, was hustled out of the Windsor, Ont., police station, back through Canadian and U.S. Immigration stations and taken to the Federal Building here by FBI agents.

When booked at the police station in Windsor, Stewart said only that he was separated from his wife, and in the space for religious affiliation, wrote "protestant."

A PAIR OF GLASSES belonging to Mrs. Scott was found on the grounds of their suburban Los Angeles Bel-Air home a year after she disappeared. Parts of some of her undergarments were found in an incinerator in the house but Scott said they were just old "soiled clothing."

When Scott was supposed to appear in court to enter a plea to the forgery and grand theft charges, it was found he had vanished.

Portland Mayor Indicted Third Time by Jury

PORTLAND, Ore. — Mayor Terry D. Schunk was indicted for the third time by a Multnomah County Grand Jury Monday.

The new bill charges the mayor, who recently figured in Senate racket hearings in Washington, with illegally obtaining a copy of tape recordings during his term as sheriff. He is also awaiting trial on charges of bribery and perjury.

Schunk surrendered on the indictment and was released on $1,000 bail.

THE WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast: Clear today. Variable high cloudiness tonight and Wednesday. Winds 15-30 miles an hour this afternoon and 30-45 miles an hour at times Wednesday. Local blowing dust and sand Wednesday. Little temperature change. Highs today 75-85 upper valleys, 85-95 lower valleys.

Translator TV Starts Fund Drive

Bogart, Sodergren Named Chairmen For Campaign

Members of the board of directors of Translator Station Inc. today announced the kickoff of their drive for funds to complete present equipment purchasing and to put more channels on the air.

The first two channels and the equipment to date has cost Translator about $15,000, of which donations have covered over $11,000.

HARRY BOGART and C. O. Sodergren have been named co-chairmen of the fund drive, and they are primarily interested in immediately raising about $5,000 to bring the operation and construction of Translator up to date and clear of debt.

The drive is by voluntary contribution, and on the eve of the campaign kickoff, George Ripley, Translator treasurer, reported that many hotels in Palm Springs have contributed money to the new corporation.

Among the hotels that contributed, some of the larger donations have come from the Howard Manor, La Fonda, and Biltmore Hotels which gave $150 each.

ACCORDING TO HARRY Paisley vice president of Translator, the sooner the drive for funds can get under way, the sooner we can add more channels to the station. After the other channels have been

Teamsters Board Meets to Decide Reply to AFL-CIO

GALVESTON, Tex. — The Executive Board of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters met today with the union's president, Dave Beck, to decide whether to ignore or obey a summons before the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee to answer a charge of corruption.

The future of Beck, 62, who comes up for reelection to his $50,000 a year job in September, also may be decided. Beck was suspended as an AFL-CIO vice president after he invoked the Fifth Amendment 117 times while a Senate committee was questioning him.

Gerald Trainer, Washington general counsel for the teamsters, met Monday night with three other top union lawyers, Edward Davis, Philadelphia, Jack Wiley, St. Louis, and Nat Wells, Dallas.

They discussed "legal aspects" of questions that may come up today, especially the question of the summons from the parent AFL-CIO on May 6.

Telephone Rate Raise Hearing Set for May 22

A hearing into the requested rate increase for California Water and Telephone Company has been set for May 22 at 10 a.m. in the Public Utilities Commission courtroom of the Mirror Building in Los Angeles.

Presiding over the hearing will be Commissioner Rex Hardy and Examiner Manley W. Edwards, the same men who held the service hearings in Palm Springs last year.

City Attorney Jerry bunker reported to the city council yesterday that the rate increase request was a matter of "having a dilemma by the horns," for without the increase the company can claim that it cannot acquire sufficient revenues to build up the system.

It was earlier voiced by residents of the desert area that they would protest the rate increase by the company, but according to the city attorney the move would possibly hinder the construction and betterment of the present system.

City Manager Robert Peterson said that another hearing had been set for May 23 in Redlands, at which time other persons can be heard.

Perkins Charges Bunaling In Solving of Wife's Murder

Calling upon the County Board of Supervisors to exert their influence "in the cause of justice," Laurence Perkins today hopefully awaited a renewal of the investigation into the 1956 Palm Springs trailer park murder of his wife.

Perkins, now living in Pomona yesterday accused the Riverside County Sheriff's office of "bungling the case" and pleaded with the board to spark the investigation.

Perkins' wife, Inez Edna Perkins, was murdered during the night of May 31, 1956, at the Horizon Trailer Park. Perkins was charged with the crime but was later found innocent.

"OUT OF JUSTICE, I feel the case should be brought to a successful conclusion," Perkins said. "The county has spent several thousand dollars and, in my estimation, has bungled the case and has done nothing to pursue it farther."

Noting that he has posted a $2,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the killer, Perkins asked the board to authorize a reward matching the amount.

However, County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan Jr. told Board Chairman Paul Anderson that the county is prohibited by law to offer a

Oasis Parking Lot Contract Signed by City

City Manager R. W. Peterson reported yesterday that the Oasis parking lot contract had been signed and said that he would request an appropriation for the purchase of parking meters to be installed there.

The lot, which has 20 parking spaces, will be turned into a municipal parking lot at a lease cost to the city of $1 per year.

At the same time the city council requested that the city make an investigation into the use of the Pevler lot of North Indian Avenue.

Mayor Florian Boyd pointed out that the lot was purchased by the city for "a great deal of money, and to date we have done nothing to bring in any revenue."

For more than a year, businessmen in the district around the lot have been trying to establish a parking district for the lot but have been unsuccessful.

A MINOR INJURY automobile accident was reported by Palm Springs police yesterday afternoon, when Albin John Furrer, elderly Long Beach man, driving the car pictured above, reportedly went to sleep and sideswiped a rock and gravel truck driven by Homer S. Eubanks of Indio. The truck was working on Indian Avenue near the Racquet Club at the time the accident occurred. With Furrer were his two grandsons. The automobile careened off the truck and traveled a distance of some 300 yards into a vacant lot before coming to a stop. There was no damage to the truck. Furrer suffered a laceration of the left arm, the only reported injury. (Desert Sun Photo).

Intersection Safety Drive Started Here

Blind Crossings Target Now of Safety Council

The Palm Springs Safety Council today launched an aggressive campaign against dangerous intersections throughout the city.

Council President Don Miller urged the support of all village citizens in the drive to regulate or eliminate hazardous "blind" intersections.

THE COUNCIL, appointed a special committee on intersection hazards to spearhead the campaign. The committee is headed by Don Wexler, chairman, and Terrence Roach, public information.

The committee was assigned to study material from the school district and police department files and enlist the support of citizens and civic organizations in its all-out drive against blind corners.

CAMPAIGN PLANS were drawn up at a council meeting attended by Hy Ranes, city planning director; Jack Sanders, building inspector; Sgt. Bob Young, head of the city police traffic detail; and George Bond, school district traffic coordinator.

Bond said he would provide the Safety Council with a map of the school district's entire bus routing inside the city limits, pinpointing dangerous intersections for special study.

Driver Cremated After Crash Of Two Trucks

EL CENTRO — A truck driver was cremated in the cab of his heavy truck-trailer early today after he apparently went to sleep at the wheel and crashed into an oncoming truck, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Officers identified the victim as Marvin Itz, who was en route from Los Angeles to Fredericksburg, Tex. The truck, owned by the W. E. Fricke Co. of Fredericksburg, was loaded with 30,000 pounds of clay.

Witnesses said the truck swerved and hit the rear of a flat bed truck driven by C. W. Bell, 48, San Pedro, on U.S. Highway 80, 40 miles east of here. Bell was uninjured.

Itz was trapped in the wreckage after the gasoline tank of his truck exploded. It took firemen nearly three hours to remove the victims charred body.

AF Nuclear Plane Timetable Set

WASHINGTON — The Air Force now expects to have its first nuclear-powered combat plane flying by 1963 or 1964, it was learned today.

THURSDAY IS FINAL DATE TO REGISTER TO VOTE

The last date to register for the special county election to be held June 11 is Thursday, April 18, it was announced today by City Clerk Louise McCann.

Residents may register at the City Clerk's office at the Palm Springs City Hall.

Two matters are on the special election ballot for June 11, the choosing of a board of freeholders to draw a county charter, and the $5,465,000 building bond issue.

Mass School Polio Vaccine Shots Postponed Week Due to Shortage

Plans for mass polio vaccine inoculations at Palm Springs schools were halted today as county health officials reported exhaustion of vaccine supplies.

Inoculations of all school youngsters was scheduled for today and tomorrow but the sudden vaccine shortage caused a shuffling of dates to April 23 and 24.

The postponement was effected when County Health Officer Everett M. Stone announced that the supply of vaccine was "temporarily exhausted."

"Dr. Stone gives full assurance that the new supply of vaccine will be available for use in Palm Springs next Tuesday and Wednesday," said School Supt. Wallace R. Muelder.

Muelder said that a second round of polio vaccinations will be available for the high school on May 21.

Area Business Group to Hear Indian Progress

Cathedral City Area Business Association will hold its regular luncheon meeting at Montezuma Restaurant in Trarview, with Ned Mitchell, local agent for the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and Mrs. Eileen Miguel, Agua Caliente Tribal secretary, as speakers.

Current undertakings of the tribe are expected to be discussed, as well as the future plans for land development.

All members are urged to attend.

ONE-TIME SINGING PRODIGY Anna Maria Alberghetti moves into the Chi Chi Starlite Room tonight as a matured entertainer. The beautiful concert star dropped her adolescent cloak as Dean Martin's fiery leading lady in MGM's recent "10,000 Bedrooms" to emerge as an eye-popping young woman. She will be accompanied at her Chi Chi engagement, which runs through next week, by her sister, Carla. Also appearing on the Starlite program is Johnny O'Brien, billed as the nation's favored "humorist of the harmonica." Held over for the week is the stunning dance team of Victor Moreno and Rosalie, late of the Monte Carlo Ballet Russe.

Rancho Mirage

By JEAN PATANE

Arriving Friday from their home in Covina to spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Carpenter, Jr., at their home on Mirage Road were Dr. and Mrs. Robert Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Carpenter III, have leased the Sir Cedric Hardwick home, adjacent to the home of his parents, until the middle of July. They particularly enjoy early summer in the desert.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Cooke entertained with a cocktail and dinner party having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Block of Beverly Hills, and Tom Long and Mal Kaplan, MGM Studio executives. Mr. and Mrs. Block, their daughter and sons, Ricky and Scott, and her friend, Mrs. Robert Phillip and daughter, Christy, were guests for the week at the House of Reiley in Palm Desert.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rounds hosted a birthday dinner party at Deseri Air Hotel last week honoring Mrs. Helen Hickok.

Recent guests of Mrs. Edwina Warren were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brunton. Mr. Brunton is a prominent Los Angeles attorney.

Mrs. Lillian Randall was in Los Angeles over the weekend visiting with her son, Carl, a well known landscape painter. In art circles he is known as Anthony St. John.

Among the guests arriving Saturday at Green's Desert Lodge were Spade Cooley and some of the members of his band. There for the weekend were Dr. Warren Clark of Hollywood with his daughter, Isabella, and a friend; Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Arnds of La Canada, the Guy Harrisons of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Couple of San Jose and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Blair of Sunland.

Mrs. Mary Vasek, mother of Mrs. Laddie Svaboda who with her husband own and manage the Desert Holiday Apartments, returned last week from Chicago. She was called east a month ago due to the serious illness of her father who was 93 years old.

Among the weekend guests at the popular Desert Holiday were Johnny Carson and his wife, Jody, with Glen and Betty Turnbull. The popular Mr. Carson will appear Thursday as the lead in "Three Men on a Horse," the Playhouse 90 Show, and Mr. Turnbull is scheduled to appear in a weekly comedy series on the Stubby Kay Show next season.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mortinson of Los Angeles were at Desert Air Hotel over the weekend visiting with their friends Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cole, who were vacationing from their home in Dallas, Texas.

May 9, 1800, was the birthday of abolitionist John Brown; Torrington, Conn., the place.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Collins were Mrs. Collins' mother, Mrs. Caroline Malthy of Long Beach, and her cousin, Dr. Tom Almy, of New York City. Dr. Almy is a professor at Cornell Medical School and flew west to give post-graduate lectures at UCLA Medical School. "The Collins" hosted dinner for their guests at Desi Arnaz' new Western Hills Hotel.

Lillian Shimmin, Hazel Mills and Jo Powell entertained 29 ladies at "The Springs" for luncheon and Mexican. Each table was artistically decorated with large candles surrounded by fern and sweet peas. Door prize was won by Florence Winston, high score by Clover Mauldin, and consolation prize by Clara Lane.

Karl and Ann Bohnett, C-23, returned from an extended trip to Florida and Cuba. Karl reported they had a little excitement during their stay in Cuba, being there during the revolution.

AL FLEMING, D-13, had a very busy weekend, being very active in promoting the road races which are held each year in Palm Springs. The Camera Club was entertained with wild flower pictures by Bill Mauldin.

Mrs. Ruth Passow, friend of Gladys Allard, D-53, showed color pictures of Sweden taken last Summer when Mrs. Passow and a friend of hers toured the country. They also entertained the group displaying their native costumes. Mrs. Passow was knitted by her grandmother.

FRED WILSON, retired U. S. Forest Service, brother of Jack Wilson, A-48, showed color pictures of his tour of Germany. His pictures were of the Black Forest and other forested areas and showed their methods of reforestation and culture.

The shuffleboard tournament for the Palm Springs Championship was a huge success for its first annual playoff. Rancho is proud that Bill Rains was one of the winners. Roy Leggett was City Director of Recreation Howard Haddock's first assistant in managing the many details of the tournament.

Beckleys Park

(By WALT HAWKINS)

The warm balmy days are here, and now is the time we have, in past years, taken off in our trailer to discover new and fascinating horizons. Frankly, we always left too early, nearly freezing in the high mountains and regretting we had not stayed longer on the desert.

This year we are staying until June, and obviously, we are not at all exclusive in our decision, as Beckley's Park is still full, not a single space available, and after talking to most of the guests, we find that they too are staying until June and some are planning to stay until the end of June.

NESTLED UNDER the fronds of the giant palms and upon a carpet of lush green dichondra, interspersed with beautiful tropical flowers, comparable to the Hawaiian Islands, has lulled us into such a serenity that only a real hot spell could change our locale.

We have noticed with the advent of good television programs and the common use of economical air conditioning, that people are staying longer each year on the desert and returning earlier in the fall.

NEW ARRIVALS in the park include Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Foggelman from La Canada, California, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Fairbanks of Hollywood, the Al Piersons of Seattle, the Phillip Aldens of Cedar Glen, California, the Fred Hawkins of Los Angeles, Bill and Bertha Fink of Santa Cruz.

Everett and Ruth Swem, of Sacramento, left in their new Airstream to return home to attend to his business for the summer, and will be back in the fall. Before leaving they gave a picture show of their recent trip through Europe and served refreshments afterward, which the whole park enjoyed.

In London, Lord Dulverton left 4,025,618 pounds in a will probated recently, the 14th member of the Wills tobacco family to leave an estate worth more than one million pounds.

Area Businessmen to Have Preview Of Live Better-Electrically Campaign

Plans for the 1957 national and local Live Better — Electrically program will be disclosed to businessmen from the Palm Springs area at a meeting in Palm Springs on Tuesday, April 23.

More than 100 businessmen representing all phases of electrical merchandising, home construction and financing will attend the California Electric Power Company-sponsored event.

The Live Better — Electrically program is a national and local campaign designed to acquaint people with the benefits of electric living. Highlight of the local meeting will be the kinescope showing of a national closed-circuit television program featuring John Daly and Giselle MacKenzie. The program is a report of the 1956 Live Better—Electrically national program and of plans for 1957.

Calectric representatives will outline the company's plans to promote Live Better — Electrically concept in its service area and the ways the company plans to assist trade allies so that they can benefit from the program.

Motor Vehicle Renewals Ended

With completion of 1957 vehicle renewals, the Department of Motor Vehicles has notified traffic law enforcement agencies of the state that motorists now should be able to show evidence of current registration when stopped for any purpose on the public highways.

The evidence of 1957 registration consists of a reflectorized red sticker attached to the rear license plate, and a registration card for the current year. According to law, the card should be displayed in the driver's compartment in a position that may be seen from outside of the vehicle.

Red Cross Fund Drive in County Hits 83 Per Cent Mark

The Riverside County Chapter, American Red Cross, with 83 per cent of fund goal reached is ahead of Pacific Area quota of 75 per cent and the national goal of 70 per cent, according to A. O. Angle fund chairman.

In the Riverside County Chapter the branches are conducting the annual fund drive as Riverside city participated in the United Fund. Two branches have reached their quotas in the county—they are Mountain and Coachella Valley.

The Palm Springs chapter is about $6,000 short of its $19,520 goal, according to Adrian Rosen, campaign chairman.

"With Red Cross disaster fund gravely depleted because of the recent floods in Virginia, West Virginia, and Kentucky, tidal wave in Hawaiian Islands, earthquake tremors in California, blizzards in several mid-western states and tornado in Texas and Oklahoma, we must exert every effort to reach our goals," Angle said.

Special Easter Features Planned At Desert Air

A full week of activities for the small fry has been planned at Desert Air Hotel. Manager John Noyes announced today.

Each evening at six a special dinner is being served to children, followed by a movie. The children will be supervised and there will be a different picture each evening. While the children are being entertained their parents will enjoy a leisurely dinner. This activity is available to children of Compass Room dinner guests, as well as guests of the hotel.

On Easter Saturday at 7 p.m., following the children's dinner hour, they will be entertained by Bob Baker's Marionettes.

Easter Sunday morning will feature the annual Easter Egg Hunt for children of the guests, starting at 10 a.m. for the children from one to five years old, and at 10:30 a.m. for the older children, with games to follow. George the donkey will be a source of amusement throughout the week.

Colored Milk Bottles

MONTPELIER, Vt. — The state agriculture department says milk in amber-colored bottles has a better flavor than that placed in clear glass bottles. The department said tests show light affects milk flavor, especially the homogenized variety, and that milk in clear bottles left in the sunlight for 20 minutes suffers serious flavor impairment.

The Department of Agriculture says 11.5 million children are getting their lunch at half price under the national school lunch program.

Olds Owner: That's nothing, wait'll you take a ride.

(A few minutes later:)

Neighbor: Man-oh-man, where'd all that power come from? I've never felt anything like that before!

Olds Owner: That's Oldsmobile's new J-2 Rocket Engine!

Neighbor: What's that? Tell me how it works.

Olds Owner: When you're driving under ordinary conditions, it uses only one carburetor. That means economy with a capital E. But when you need a sudden burst of power, for safety's sake, you just press the accelerator three-quarters of the way down—and two additional carburetors cut in!

Neighbor: In other words, with J-2, you can have economy when you want it and power when you need it. That's for me!

Olds Owner: Better see your Olds dealer. He's expecting you!

ANGEL VIEW CLINIC DESERVES OUR SUPPORT

Nothing quite tugs at the heart strings like a little child who cannot romp and play because of crippled legs. Accustomed to watching children in almost perpetual motion, it is distressing to see a little wide eyed youngster who cannot even walk.

So it was a sad—almost shocking—experience to visit the Angel View Crippled Children's Clinic at Desert Hot Springs recently. Yet I certainly realized that I seemed to be about the only depressed person in the place. Boys and girls wearing braces on their legs, others in wheel chairs, mothers, doctors and nurses all radiated an atmosphere of cheerfulness.

The reason was soon apparent; there was hope that these tots would some day run and play. Courage, determination and faith had driven out thoughts of discouragement and despair. There was an air of confidence and hope. It was an experience I will not soon forget.

Residents of Desert Hot Springs have known for a long time how helpful their natural hot mineral waters have proven to be in treating post-polio paralysis and other ailments. About two years ago a group of business men, housewives and doctors decided that the community would be an ideal place for the treatment of crippled children. They organized the Angel View Clinic for the treatment of orthopedic and pediatric disabilities and began treating children in December 1954.

Clinic Free to All in Need

Supported almost entirely by voluntary donations the clinic is free to all who are unable to pay. A new outpatient clinic building and hot mineral water pool were opened early this year. Future plans call for the establishment of a 30-bed hospital for crippled children. It will cost approximately $750,000, all of which will have to be raised by voluntary donations.

Here is an opportunity for residents of this area to actually see the fruits of their philanthropic assistance. A visit to Angel View Clinic just a few miles from Palm Springs will convince anyone that here is as worthy an undertaking as one could find almost anywhere. We seldom have the opportunity to see the results of our contributions to other needy causes. Seeing with your eyes how little children are being taught to walk through your assistance is truly a wonderful feeling.

A group of Palm Springs women known as the Pathfinders have seen the wonderful work being done at Angel View Clinic and are making assistance to this hospital one of their principal projects. They have shown the way to other groups throughout Riverside County which could take a lot of satisfaction from helping in this work with crippled children.

Six doctors, headed by Dr. Robert Dingham, are donating a great deal of their time to this work. It takes a lot of skill and patience to help these little children gain the use of crippled limbs but all are being encouraged by the results obtained. Civic leaders of Desert Hot Springs are contributing much time and money to keep the clinic going and are badly in need of outside assistance. Residents of Palm Springs should take a special interest in this nearby institution which is doing so much for its little patients.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Post Mortem of an Also-Ran

RICHMOND, Va. — When T. Coleman Andrews, a burly businessman of 58 in aggressive gold-rimmed glasses, was candidate for President last year on the States' Rights ticket, he and his cause got badly beaten—or did they?

A talk with Mr. Andrews raises some doubt about the nature of the defeat. Now the well-paid executive of a large national insurance concern, Mr. Andrews says that he's "proud" he gave it the big try for a return to Constitutional government and that, maybe, what he and his half-million supporters did was supply the stitch in time.

HAD THE HOPELESS effort not been made, had the political moonlight which goes by the false name of a two-party system not been challenged, had the Federal income tax law not been aggressively accused as concealed confiscation—who knows whether the present uprising against Mr. Eisenhower's monstrous $72 billion Budget could have materialized?

Candidate Andrews captured no electoral votes. He ran far behind the third party ticket of Thurmond-Wright in 1948. Still, nobody last year was going to beat Mr. Eisenhower. The real pay-off for conservatives, if there is ever going to be one, will be in the Congressional contests of 1958, when the Old Guard makes its last stand in the Senate, and in '60 when both parties must find fresh faces for the presidential tickets. Mr. Andrews believes that the 1958-60 future races will be favorably influenced by the losing fight of '56.

MR. ANDREWS thinks the country is a lot closer to a sit-down strike on tax payments than is generally supposed. Ex-Governor Bracken Lee of Utah on a nationwide speaking tour has been getting an almost frightening response when he attacks the 16th (income tax) Amendment and reminds his hearers that the Revolution, 1776, was an uprising against unjust taxation. If any significant number of Americans deliberately withheld their payments, the Federal machinery would grind to a halt.

This is, of course, no way for a law-abiding country to revise its tax laws. But Andrews, who was Internal Revenue Commissioner during part of the Eisenhower first term, feels that unless responsible leaders begin a lawful revision of taxes, the job will be done irresponsibly and unlawfully.

"I AM IMPRESSED," says Andrews, "with the number of really fine Americans who are taking sides against the leftward drift of both parties. There are already a number of defects in Congress from both major parties, and there will be many more before 1960."

Although his name is almost a byword for "repeal," Andrews insists that he never did, or would, advocate the instant and complete abolition of the 16th Amendment. It is not that he believes the Federal bureaucracy doesn't deserve to have its resources cut off, or that the USA isn't almost equally endangered by continued taxation as by sudden cessation. But there is no sense in being spiteful. The proper solution, Andrews tells me, is a critical, business-type analysis of the entire Federal tax basis.

HE BELIEVES that funds to run the country can be raised by levies of many kinds, including the income levy. The trouble seems to be over-reliance upon soak-the-rich income taxes. The USA gains 85 per cent of its revenue from people's earnings. Even Socialist Britain never took more than 39 per cent of its total revenue from earnings.

Andrews figures that a gradual tax revision should be spread over a period of three to five years. Anything more sudden than this would bring about a violent reaction within the economy.

FOR THE immediate future, Andrews says, we need a really sizable reduction in spending for this current fiscal year. He does not mean the $3-4 billion deduction urged by Republican Senators Bridges and Knowland, nor even the top cut of $6.5 billion advocated by Democratic Senator Byrd. The National Association of Manufacturers has a figure of $8.5 billion, and this is more to Andrews' thinking.

Post mortem views of an also-ran cannot be described as news copy; but something is simmering here. The body politic of the States Rights party is a little bit warmer than Adlai Stevenson's political remains. And doesn't all this indignation against Federal taxing and spending suggest that the Andrews fight wasn't entirely in vain?

GOVERNMENT DEBT

(Cornell, Ill., Journal)
We owe a great deal to our government. The question is, how are we ever going to get the money to pay it?

CONSIDER COST

(Taylorville, Ill., Daily Breeze-Courier)

It costs each of us MORE when the Federal government helps us to pay for our local, state and community improvements. . . . A great many people have been fooled into thinking that grants-in-aid are fine and they as such have become quite popular on the strength that someone else is paying the bill but . . . everytime we avail ourselves of these pleasures it ends up costing us more than it would have had we taken care of ourselves.

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

For listening pleasure,
How is this for a trade?
Forget the Calypso.
Put on "Easter Parade."

Used to be, along about this time of the year, that Irving Berlin's "Easter Parade" was heard on the radio at least once every hour on the hour.

Now all we get is mostly Day-O and bananas.

WHICH REMINDS ME, some of the boys were whooping it up over their tomato juice the other morning and one remarked: "Fellow who wrote 'Day-O' is in town."

Said the man on the next stool:

"You mean, he's still alive?"

Anyway, Easter isn't Easter, without, respectively, "Easter Parade" and "White Christmas."

Maybe my good friends on KDES this week could sandwich "Easter Parade" somewhere between Calypso and Perry Como's "Round, Round, Round" and Dinah Shore's "Chantez, Chantez. But don't get me wrong. After Bing, Dinah's is place and Perry's show with me.

Round and Round? H'mmm, just as old square, that's me.

OF COURSE, I am a little bit dull on the economic side. All I know about money is that it is nice to have around the house. But a little news item the other day sort of struck me as peculiar. Great Britain is cutting its income tax.

In the meantime, we are paying the same old tax rate. To help out Great Britain so that they can cut their income tax.

But, anyway, there's that silver lining again. Over here we don't have to worry about what we put into the "E" bonds like Com in Russia. There the top Communists last week blandly said that no payment would be made on the bonds bought with payroll deductions. And over there they HAVE to deduct.

Poor Ivan has been left holding the bag but, thank heaven, we are not taxed to buy the Jute.

STILL ON THAT silver lining to every cloud theme: When, last week, P. M. General Arthur Summerfield threatened to cut down mail service due to a lack of funds, he said the P.O. would not accept "trash" mail. That stuff addressed to occupant and other similar unsolicited mail.

That would be great. Cut down the time now taken up in emptying wastebaskets.

NEXT SUNDAY is Easter. Although it is practically as late as it can come under the program set up in the year 325 A.D. which fixes the date for Easter as the first Sunday after the first full moon in Spring, this "season" has gone with remarkable speed.

So fast, in fact, that the other day Pat Stambough looked out of the window as the winds were blowing and sand flying and said:

"Gosh, this season has gone so fast that here we are having March weather in April!"

SEE WHERE Los Angeles is planning to ban private automobile traffic on two downtown streets. That's the most logical way to solve traffic congestion that I've heard in several years.

DR. BENJAMIN GOLDBERG Psychiatric Conditions in County

PART II

Continuing with our previous column concerning psychiatric conditions in Riverside County, I might mention that this is, from a study which I made for the State Hospital Authorities.

We were discussing the numbers of individuals who were committed to state institutions from the group who were temporarily incarcerated in a special ward at the Riverside County General Hospital.

These figures for the past years are as follows:

1952	241
1953	223
1954	217
1955	223
1956	289
Grand Total	1,184 Sent to State Hospital for the Insane

These numbers have pointed to the great necessity for the development of a psychiatric unit at the General Hospital. The concern of such a unit will be pointed towards both in-patient and out-patient study the evaluation of the underlying mental derangements, and the application of the proper treatment necessary to improve and to attempt restoration to normal of mental function.

INASMUCH AS only two per cent of those affected, according to recent surveys, can afford private care, and more than 95 per cent of mental patients under treatment are in public institutions, it becomes very important to properly and adequately train the interns and residents in a hospital in the many fundamental aspects that concern psychiatric problems.

This will enable our physicians to more properly evaluate and have a better understanding of the overall problems of mental disease, and attempt their restoration to normal within the confines of their own practice. Many of these individuals who are committed become encompassed in a vast area of neglect, incarcerated for a lifetime.

BILL RASHALL

Unedited

Now I know why Andy Crevolin is so well liked by newspapermen wherever he may be racing his horses.

You must remember this man and his horse, Determined, which broke records here and there around the country and incidentally brought his owner a tidy sum of money. Andy, a personable individual with a constant smile mirrored on his face even when he is in deep thought, speaks in a soft voice and listens to others talk with the eagerness of a youngster hearing the story of Little Red Riding Hood for the first time.

AND SHOULD you ask Crevolin if it's all peaches and cream with a stable of horses no matter how much some of the hay-burners win, he will tell you: "It's a business where every cent in the cost of operation must be watched or you'll go broke for sure."

"I had 30 horses in my stable and that was just too much. Enough to break a man," Andy smiled. "Sold some of them and reduced the number of horses in my string."

He said that he had just returned from England where he bought several horses and he has some of his thoroughbreds racing in England and France.

ANY CREVOLIN has other enterprises in which he is vitally interested. He handed me one of his cards and here is how it reads: President and owner of the Andrew J. Crevolin Company, Andy Crevolin Stables, Crevolin Investment Company and the Andrew J. Crevolin Oil Co.

He is associated with Carl Hurlinger in the construction of 600 homes down San Diego way. Hurlinger is credited with building the staggering number of 26,000 homes.

EARL WILSON:

'Alices in Moneyland'

LAS VEGAS—Id like to be a showgirl in this crazy town. The showgirls at the new $15,000,000 Tropicana Hotel get $200 a week. All they have to do is walk.

They meet such interesting millionaires.

A Houston oil man named Frank Waters bets about $5,000 every time he rolls the dice. He tossed a few chips at Betty Magowan, a showgirl from New York, the other night.

She was an Alice in Moneyland who found that money grows on her.

"WHEN SHE FINISHED playing about 2 o'clock the next afternoon," her roommate, Honey Merrill, told me, "She made almost $2,000."

"But she took a couple of pills and was back in the line that night."

A dancer named Tybee Afram won $1,700. She asked Monte Proser, producer of the show, "How should I invest it? In government bonds or real estate?" "Give it to me, dear, and I'll get a little bet down with it," he said.

But he was kidding. Proser's signing beautiful Rhonda Fleming to follow Eddie Fisher into the Tropicana. But he feels as he did when he opened the Copacabana in New York that there's no attraction like fresh, young, lovely showgirls.

"I'LL PAY 'EM $300 or even $400 a week if they're pretty enough—and all they have to do is look beautiful," he says.

Proser's arrival from Broadway caused excitement. He told his friend, Jack Entratter, boss of the shows at the Sands, "You're no longer the Great Ziegfeld of Las Vegas. I'm taking over."

Eddie Fisher's singing beautifully in a cabaret-theater which is so attractive that you flip.

Out on the grass by the pool in the afternoon sits Debbie Reynolds basking her six-month-old daughter, Carrie Frances.

It seems at that moment to be just like any other town in America—but actually this is the most unbelievable place in the world today.

STRANGE NIGHTTIME sight: A guy putting the names of vegetables in lights on the marquee of a supermarket that used to be a theater. ("Tomatoes" got top billing) . . . "Nothing to read around this place," stormed the man of the house who settled down for the evening, "but some old next month's magazines."

(From Harry Oliver the Desert Rat) . . . "Was she fat!" says Bob Feinstein of East Paterson. "After only 14 visits to Slenderella, the table had lost 12 pounds."

Comedian Joe E. Lewis visited vacationing Toots Shor in Hot Springs and began drinking. "I'm celebrating an anniversary," he explained in long distance . . . "What anniversary?" I asked . . . "The 33rd anniversary," he Ranch before it became the plush country club it is today. He still owns a residential lot there upon which he hopes some day to build a home.

But most important of all during my conversation with this great sportsman we learned that he is just about to launch a home development project southeast of here.

"I plan to build around 30 homes with the price ranging upward from just below $14,000," Crevolin said. "I love this country and believe that it has only just begun to grow."

HE WOULD NOT reveal the location of this development "because there are a few little things that have to be ironed out. But you'll be hearing from me, Bill. I'm going to advertise in The Desert Sun."

Then just about that time Charles Irwin walked into the scene to tell a story about Americans in Ireland to buy horses. One yarn concerned an Irish racer by the name of Polly. An Englishman challenged the owner of Polly, but he explained that the Irish mare was about to foal and it just would not be the right thing to race her.

BUT WHEN THE Englishman said that was just an Irishman's lame excuse, Polly said you're on for a two miler. They were off on the day of the race with Polly in the lead. Polly, with 20,000 Irishmen watching, pulled ahead fast until at the half-way mark she was forty lengths ahead.

"Then suddenly there was a gasp of surprise from the watchers. Polly was faltering. Soon she reclined in the middle of the track, gave birth to her foal, arose to her feet and won the race, the foal coming in second," related Erwin. This yarn convulsed Andy with laughter.

Aw, who can beat an Irishman with a bit of blarney in a story? I'm asking.

Those "insult cards" have added these: "Use Your Head! It's the little things that count," and, "THINK! New experiences are good for you." . . . Tex O'Rourke to Gene Tunney: "I wish I'd been in your corner when you fought Jack Dempsey." Tunney: "I wish you'd been in the ring!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. Monroe startled Warner Bros. execs with her shrewdness at meetings. (She arrived on time, for a change—and veep Bob Taplinger was late) . . . The Andrews Sisters may join Liberace's Palace show; they'd have to trim the act to 25 minutes. . . . Monique Van Vooren's report on her date with Elvis: "When he met me he got so nervous he stopped shaking."

Mrs. Danny Arstein, wife of the taxi tycoon, left for a Las Vegas divorce . . . Claire Blooms reported set for "Marjorie Morningstar" . . . Ed Sullivan became a grandpa for the third time . . . Barbara Hutton's son, Lance Reventlow, drives to Las Vegas from L.A., to see Dunes singer Ann Mason . . . Singer Rita Ellis says former TV sponsor frowned on leggy photos: "He was selling peanut butter, not cheesecake."

STEVE ALLENS announcer, Gene Rayburn, a ski accident victim, will be on crutches another nine weeks . . . Rosemary Clooney flew to Europe to visit husband Joe Ferrer . . . Robert Alda's film, "The Gershwin Story," will be revived at the Apollo Theater — where Alda started as a burlesque singer . . . The Friars' Carl Timen was so exhausted by arrangements for the Perry Como dinner, his doctor ordered him to Miami.

A London paper referred to Victor Borge as, "50 per cent pianist, 50 per cent wit," and he said jokingly, "I don't think I like it—they called me a half wit."

EARLS PEARLS . . . The best years of a woman's life are figured in man-hours.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Too many people are trying to make week-ends meet." —P.K. Sideliner.

TODAYS BEST LAUGH George DeWitt heard one woman needle another: "That's a beautiful dress you're wearing—or did I tell you that last year?"

One local bar waters its whiskey so much it doesn't even need a liquor license. . . . That's earl, brother.

Bob Havemann is Charter Member of UR Society

Robert Havemann, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Havemann, 2292 Belding, has been installed as a charter member of the University of Redlands Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Mu Gamma, national honorary foreign language society.

Epsilon chapter is the 26th of the society formed in 1932 for the purpose of recognizing linguistic ability and achievement and promoting interest in culture of other nations.

Four professors and 18 students were initiated by the society's national president, Sister Eloise Therese of Los Angeles. The students qualified for the society by achieving high grades in at least three semesters of college level language study.

Havemann, a senior at the university, is majoring in German. He graduated from Palm Springs High School in 1953.

The Culpit

DETROIT. — Police in suburban Birmingham spent two weeks searching for someone they dubbed the "mad denter" after residents reported a rash of car fender denting during the night. The search was finally abandoned when Lt. Merlin Holmquist decided the "mad denter" was probably one of the city's snowplows.

Bear Roast

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. — When smoke began to pour from the kitchen oven she had turned on only a few minutes before, Mrs. Nick Spinelli summoned firemen who pulled out a scorched teddy bear. The toy apparently had been put in the oven earlier in the day by the Spinelli's two-year-old son, Gary.

Persistence Pays

BOSTON. — Thrice in six weeks State Trooper James L. Killoran arrested the same motorist for driving after revocation of his license. The third offense resulted in a four-month jail term and a $125 fine.

WINNERS OF THE Teen-age Road-e-o were Frank Brown, being given the first place trophy by Robert Morrison, left, chairman of the JayCee event, and Jill Goodwin, best girl driver, being awarded her prize by Bill Bronstein, right, president of the Junior Chamber. The best girl driver award was presented by the Palm Springs Sports Car Club. Automobiles for the test were furnished by Stack Chevrolet, Ben Cowan Ford, and Hertz U-Drive. (Sun Photo).

New Attendance Records Predicted for Ramona Play

New attendance records are expected to be established during the 30th anniversary season of the famed Ramona Outdoor Play, to be staged on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, April 27 and 28, May 4 and 5 and May 11 and 12 in the beautiful Ramona Bowl near Hemet and San Jacinto.

Early advance reservations are the greatest in the history of the play, reports Milton R. Nims, general manager of the Ramona Pageant Association.

"UNLIKE OTHER seasons, more reservations are for the first two weekend performances," he says. "These are when the best seats are available," Nims points out.

More and more out of state license plates are noticed at the Ramona Bowl, indicating the widespread popularity of the Ramona Play, which has come to be recognized as California's greatest outdoor spectacle.

SET IN THE foothills above Hemet, with majestic snow capped Mount San Jacinto as a backdrop and utilizing an entire mountainside and an adjoining peak as a stage, this colorful romance of early California takes its audiences back in the pages of frontier history as it recalls the struggle of the Indians and the early white settlers of the golden state, taken from the historic novel of Helen Hunt Jackson.

Palm Desert

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN
Mrs. Jimmy Gray gave a surprise birthday party for her husband last Saturday. It was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sherrod. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Beal and Joe and Lucy Melendz. Mr. and Mrs. Gray own and operate a market here.

as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Kapp.

A card from Ann Kindall says she is having a wonderful time in Mexico. She has been in Acapulco and Mexico City.

Last week Mrs. Joan Wyman entertained Dr. and Mrs. Fredric Ewens of Manhattan Beach. Dr. Ewens travels all over the country in the interest of the A.M.A.

and is one of their top speakers. Mrs. Wyman also entertained her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Barnett of Albuquerque, N. M. Mr. Barnett is the author of "The Wound Is Green," a historical novel that is soon to be made into a movie.

The Palm Desert Woman's Club will have its annual Pot Luck dinner for members and their families Wednesday, April 24, at 6:30 at the Shadow Mountain Stables. Johnny Boyle will furnish the entertainment and lead the community singing.

The Program of Coronation of last Monday was given by children of all ages, whose parents are members of the Club. Lou Kuehner and Betty Crockett were in charge and these young artists were the hit of the season. The Royal family were: Queen, Mrs. Maxine Chapman; King, James Dunn, guest of the Zach Brinkerhoff's, the young princess, Cheryl Anne Page, and the young Prince Bill Along. It was a real family night at Shadow Mountain Club.

Mrs. Eleanor Germeaux recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Dreibus of San Marino and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Friendelsen of Minneapolis, Minn.

Nelson to Attend State Meeting

Richard J. Nelson, manager of the Indio Local Office of the Department of Employment, 83-151 Requa, will represent this area at the Department of Employment annual management conference in Long Beach April 23, 24 and 25, it was announced today.

Kentucky was the 15th state admitted to the Union; Tennessee the 16th.

Theme of the conference will be "Public Service is our Business." Local representatives will hear state and national experts in employment security administration discuss most recent developments in the program, and will participate in a series of group operational meetings with the Department of Employment's Central Office staff.

THE STADIUM at the Polo Grounds was well filled Sunday night as over 2200 music lovers gathered to listen to the Philharmonic orchestra play under a full moon. Pictured in one of the boxes are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Luccareni, (she is president of the Palm Springs Playhouse Guild which sponsored the affair), on left; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murphy (he was chairman for the concert. (Sun Photo).

L.A. Philharmonic Gives First Palm Springs Concert

A full moon rode majestically overhead and the desert wind died down, as a hushed audience of over 2200 filled the polo grounds stadium Sunday night for the first Palm Springs concert of the 100-piece Los Angeles Philharmonic.

The concert opened with the Overture to "Der Frieschutz" with a slow dreamy introduction in which the horns dominate. Soon come the weird tremolos on the strings, followed by the fast section, leading to fervent melody.

This was followed by the New England Triptych, in three parts "Be Glad Then, America", "When Jesus Wept" and "Chester", that was composed as a church hymn but was adopted as a marching song for the Continental Army. The three religious movements are highly descriptive and the themes were both original and skillful.

The end of the program, Brahms was most inspiring under the baton of Maestro Alfred Wallenstein.

The Strauss suite from the opera "Der Rosenkavalier" seemed dragging and without the necessary clan demanded by Strauss waltzes.

In welcoming the audience Mrs. John F. Luccareni, president of the Playhouse Guild, sponsoring organization, said that it is hoped to make the concert a yearly affair.

Harold Murphy, chairman of the concert committee, introduced the conductor, Alfred Wallenstein.

Pre-Concert Dinner for Patrons

Anticipating the L.A. Philharmonic concert on Sunday evening was a brilliant assemblage at Deep Well, meeting for cocktails and buffet dinner before going on to the symphony. Mrs. John Kenaston, dinner chairman, greeted arriving guests and assisted them to find seats at their reserved tables. Mrs. Charles Farrell and Mrs. John McClure were assistant hostesses. A Santos-catered buffet was a dining delight for the many Guild supporters who made up the guest list at this beautiful party. Tornadoes of filet mignon and a tempting array of salads and delicacies made an outstanding menu.

The famous Wishing Well seemed to reflect the many good wishes that had gone into making this night a dream come true for that tireless worker and Guild president, Mrs. John Luccareni, who had been assisted by able workers on a number of important committees. Harold E. Murphy, general chairman of the symphony committee, and Mrs. Murphy, ticket chairman, along with others who served in various capacities, shared honors for this courageous civic venture.

Celebrating a 42nd wedding anniversary were the Mel Eatons, while Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Pruitt celebrated their sixth anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dreyfus entertained at a table for nine, and the William Ottos arranged two tables of 10 each.

Others who had reserved tables were Mrs. Alexander Marcuse, the Richard Bagdasarians, Major and Mrs. Reuben Fleet, Mrs. W. F. Schlotman, Mrs. Harry Clatworthy, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Dollard, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meiselman, Mr. and Mrs. William Malouf, the Thomas Flemings, Mrs. Ruth Passow, the Joe Hales, Jack Sheridans, Mrs. Gustav Berg, Mrs. Gwynne Hurrell, the Robert Alexanders. Seen joining friends were the Earl Coffmans, Ernest Alschuler, Robert Backstroms, Mrs. Joseph Froggatt, the Kay Karahadians, Tom Eatons, Franklyn MacCarthys and their daughter Lorraine MacCarthy Hogan and many, many more.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Luccareni had the following guests at their long table: Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Christie, the Howard McKays, Harold Coopers, Mayor and Mrs. Florian Boyd, the Harold Murphys, William Crawfords, Mrs. Ralph O'Dell and her niece from Australia, and Miss Alice Taylor, manager of the Southern California Symphony Association.

Daughter and Family Visit With Paisleys

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Weaver and sons Robbie and Jackie of East Liverpool, Ohio, are houseguests of Mrs. Weaver's parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Paisley of Orchid Tree Inn.

This is the Weavers first visit to Palm Springs and they like it so well they may decide to leave Ohio and make their home in Southern California. They have been here for several weeks and plan an indefinite stay.

It is the first time the Paisleys have seen their daughter in nine years and they had never seen their grandsons before.

To prevent the bottom button on a coat-style dress from ripping loose, sew it to an inch-long piece of elastic. Then sew the elastic flat to the dress, with the button in its proper place. The elastic will give the button enough stretch to prevent tearing from too long a step.

Use Honey for Baked Bananas

Try honey-baked bananas as an accompaniment to a meat dish. Or serve them as dessert. To make, peel and cut bananas in half lengthwise. Arrange in a shallow baking dish. Sprinkle each banana with 1 tablespoon of strained honey mixed with 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice. Bake in a pre-heated oven (400 degrees) 10 to 15 minutes.

The Western Growers Association suggest adding raw, sliced mushrooms to green salads for additional flavor.

Expert Says to Let Men Choose Hats

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP)—When it comes to buying a spring bonnet, let the man in your life have the last word for a change.

Mrs. Sally Victor said that if women paid more attention to masculine advice, there would be fewer outlandish hats in the Easter parade.

"Men for the most part have better taste than women," said Mrs. Victor, who makes the hats worn by the nation's first lady. Does Mrs. Eisenhower listen to the President?

"She certainly does," said the milliner. "I don't know of any hat he's turned thumbs down on completely. But she gets the same glow as any other woman when complimented on what she's wearing."

Men like women in feminine hats, she said. "I don't mean fussy," she added, "but soft in line and color. Men don't like those stiff, wired-looking sailors, for instance."

Mrs. Victor said that despite all the warnings, the Easter parade will be cluttered with hat mistakes. She listed some of the inevitable buying errors.

"The biggest is buying a hat because a friend likes it," she said.

Garden Club Has Potluck With Shelleys

Thirty-five members of the Palm Springs Garden Club gathered at the La Quinta estate of the Ralph Shelleys for a potluck supper Saturday. After the strenuous work of the season, which included publishing the highly successful Garden Book, the unique book of how to garden in the desert area; and holding a Flower Show the previous Saturday, which was attended by 1,500 Villagers and visitors to Palm Springs, the monthly business was held to a minimum, and gay relaxation, in the lovely garden where supper was served, prevailed. The artistic new home of the Shelleys, their indoor planters and flower arrangements, and their already seemingly well-established gardens were a fitting setting for a gathering of the Garden Club which is gaining nationwide recognition.

Elsa Uppman Knoll, Garden Editor of Sunset Magazine, and Margaret Cruise, district director of California Federation of Garden Clubs, wrote long complimentary letters to the Club, praising the members for their spirit, energy, and talents in carrying out so successfully their many worthwhile projects.

After the delightful repast was finished, Ernie Alschuler acted as auctioneer, while the wide variety of white elephants — some amusing, some beautiful — which had been donated by those attending, were auctioned off.

As the group broke up, the members had a radiant moonlight desert evening for the drive back to their Palm Springs homes.

Shape Diet to Lifetime Need

FARGO, N. D. — A college nutritionist says the proper way to guard against being overweight is to adopt a diet you can live with all your life instead of just a few months.

Ruth Dawson of North Dakota Agricultural College warned fat can be fatal. She said insurance figures show the fat man's mortality rate exceeds that of the average person by 50 per cent.

According to Miss Dawson, the best way to keep your weight down is to cut down on foods, not to omit them.

Do not eliminate any single food, she advised, but go slow on rich desserts, fried foods and high calorie foods.

"Two pounds a week are enough to lose," she said. "Reduce slowly and you will stay reduced."

Miss Dawson added exercise as one part of her recommended method to reduce.

"Exercise is important in helping to shave off extra pounds as diet alone won't do it," she said.

"Watch your activities to avoid too much sitting, and change your living pattern along with your diet."

Ray Goulds Have Brunch At New Home

The noonday sun warmed the gardens and the guests warmed the house Sunday as the Ray Goulds held a brunch housewarming of their attractive and unusual home at 475 South Patencio, entertaining over 100 at a poolside brunch.

The big white house has a circular curve and looks round as you approach it on Patencio. Inside the rooms are all house-wide and curve to embrace the garden where the pool repeats the circular line.

Manuel Espinoza's trio played music in the garden where brunch was served chuckwagon style. The hostess provided Japanese parasols for feminine guests.

Many of the guests were Long Beach friends who motored down for the party. Their houseguests were their sons and daughter-in-laws Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Gould of Long Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gould of Rolling Hills, and Mrs. Mickey Gould's mother, Mrs. Stuart Hunt of Monroe, Louisiana. Mrs. Hunt is a sister of Governor Earl Long and the late Huey Long.

Among other guests were the Andy Crevolins, Charles Irwins (they live next door), George Robersons, Edith and Dick Edwards, Glenn Thomases, the Al Greers of Hollywood, Henry Clocks of Long Beach, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Jimison, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Jones, the Lester Callahans, the Russell Prays and more.

R. R. Halls and DeLues Host Party

Around 200 guests attended the Friday night cocktail buffet which was given by Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard DeLue at the Ralph Kiner home at Thunderbird, which the Halls are occupying this season.

The Ace and Deuce Spriggin trio played poolside and the bar and buffet tables were set up there. Santos catered the affair and the hors d'oeuvres table had the canapes arranged around a centerpiece of a huge champagne glass in which goldfish were swimming. On the buffet table was a giant sea shell filled with fruits, and there was turkey and ham and other buffet dishes.

Among the guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Jack Allgaier, Ernest Breech, Charles Becker, George Barrett, Earl Buckingham, J. W. Carter, Dwight Chapman, Holt Chew, John Curci, John Dawson, Kenneth Evans, Harold Hamilton, Kent Hayes, Eddie Susalla, Barney Hinkle, S. P. Manasse, Victor Hugo-Vidal, Fred Karlen, Richard Long, Lou Manseau, Robert McCulloch, W. G. Moncrief, Chauncey Needham, Don Pegler.

Also: the Fred Warings, H. E. Sayres, Eric Staintons, Ralph Singers, Clarke Swansons, Maynard Lawells, Glenn Thomases, Dan Thomsons, James Tunas, Harry Weinmars, James Welshes, Georgina Poston and Harold Hicks, Judy Howard, Robin Barnes, Emily DeWare, Mark Kramer, Herb Listman, and more.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

The only traffic jam this weekend wasn't on Palm Canyon Drive... there was another on the social calendar... The warm sun shone down on busy days... and a full moon watched the cars scurrying from one place to another... Memories of music and dancing... of songs and laughter... poolside dinner looking out over the neon-jeweled desert... and poolside brunch in the noonday sun... of celebrities at LaPaz, Chi Chi, The Springs, Racquet Club and all over the Village... and party, party, party... linger on... as this Easter week finds the Village overrun with vacationers...

If you've been window shopping along Palm Canyon Drive... inspecting all the Easter finery... you've seen The Hat in Bess Bender's window... Hundreds of people have stopped to look... and more than one has said "Hi, Hedda" to it because it reminded them of the columnist who has a passion for hats...

This is to tell you that one couple... Debbie and Milton Prell (they own the Sahara in Las Vegas) thought the hat looked so much like Hedda... that they bought it... and sent it to her to wear for Easter...

The all-pink dream is 31 inches across and is a pink leghorn... completely covered with tulle, small pink ostrich feathers, and big pink roses...

The hat that's in the window now... is a replacement Bess whipped up... and it's worth seeing...

Jean and Don Knutson came out from Minneapolis... for a Palm Springs holiday... fell in love with the place... leased a house in the Las Palmas area... and sent for four of their children to join them here for a six weeks stay... The children are in Palm Valley School... and Don is just back from Mazatlan where he went deep sea fishing...

Add plans for May... Vicki and Billy Malouf will be hosting another in their series of parties... a cocktail-buffet on the evening of May 4...

Jolie Gabor and her bridegroom Edmund de Szegti arrived in Palm Springs this weekend... and are staying at the Desert Inn.

George and Alta Roberson will host twenty... at cocktails and dinner at Thunderbird Thursday evening... first in a series of events they are planning...

Bernie and Joe Malone of Palm Desert Drive... will host their traditional silver fizz party... after mass on Easter Sunday...

Dropped by LaPaz Friday night for Dorothy Porters opening... and joined the dinner group being hosted by LaPaz owner Ralph Wilcox Taylor... Loved the welcoming tune ("Hildy, O Hildy, please don't let us down" to the tune of "Cindy") with which Frank Marocco greeted me... Al Anthony played my favorite song... and later, at my request played "Stranger in Paradise" for Walter Winchell who joined our party after dinner at The Springs... you'll remember Winchell wrote a column on Palm Springs when he was here for the Eisenhower visit... and guided it "Stranger in Paradise"...

Also in our party were... Winsome Courtney and Hal Hayes, Ted Grouya and Florence Barto- usek... Al Anthony, Marshall Powell, Mrs. Noble Banks, Bathy Stuart and Beth Scott...

Estelle and Ed Bacon, who are down from San Francisco for a 10-day stay at the Racquet Club, will host a group of their Palm Springs friends... at cocktails Thursday night... in the Farrell bungalow at the Club...

Hazel and Roy Hoffman have gone back to Los Angeles... after spending a week here as house- guests of Lillian and John McClure... Mrs. Hoffman is president of the Assistance League of Los Angeles...

At the Chi Chi Saturday night... Muriel and Abe Lipsey were hosting a gay "after the Police Show" group... which included Danny Thomas, Eddie Reo, Walter Winchell and Winsome Courtney...

Among celebrities noted at The Springs Friday night... Jesse Lasky with some friends... Mary Pickford and Buddy Rogers... and Walter Winchell...

(Listen to Hildy Crawford, Monday through Friday, at 11:30 a.m., on KDES, 920 on your dial.)

Cahuilla Chapter D.A.R. Re-Elects Mrs. Paul Regent

Cahuilla Chapter D.A.R. elected Mrs. August K. Paul to a second term as Regent, when they met at the home of Mrs. R. R. Jones in Palm Desert. Mrs. Reynard L. Joseph presided in the absence of Mrs. Paul, who is in Washington, D.C., attending the Continental Congress.

Other officers elected for the coming year were: 1st Vice Regent, Mrs. Fred A. Nitchy; 2nd Vice Regent, Mrs. Evelyn Pell; Chaplain, Mrs. William J. Schwartz; recording secretary, Mrs. William E. Froom; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Howard M. Jay; treasurer, Mrs. Reynard L. Joseph; registrar, Mrs. Florence Bacon; assistant registrar, Mrs. Redmond P. Hogan; historian and librarian, Mrs. Harlan G. Bosler.

Canadian Is Honored

Mrs. G. H. (Edith) Wood was the guest of honor Friday when Mrs. S. P. Manasse hosted a table at the fashion show luncheon at Thunderbird. Mrs. Wood and her husband (he's head of the Toronto company which advertises "Sanitation for the Nation") are houseguests of the Manasses at Whispering Palms.

The luncheon party was part of the big style show luncheon arranged for wives of visiting golfers here for the Out of This World Tournament. The women were wearing the straw sailor hats that were tourney favors. The Manasse table was attractively decorated with a big Easter bunny and small rabbits made of styrofoam as place cards. A streamlined arrangement of yellow pansies and bunches of violets was part of the table decorations.

The stage backdrop carried out the "out of this world" motif as a setting for a smart and mundane showing of resort clothes from J. W. Robinsons.

The show opened with a gay wraparound play-all, and ended with new spring creations by such couturiers as Edith Small, Dior, Jerry Farnis and Trigere.

Sundresses and separates, swim suits, sheaths and matching coats, were in the interesting collection. A white eyelet shirtmaker was an example of the important all white dresses that will claim a place in summer wardrobes. There was a jeweled cotton chiffon in a drip dry; a cotton tweed suit; basis gowns for that trip in to the city; a dacron suit from Nicolai.

Philatelists Vacation Here

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hotchkiss of San Francisco are again vacationing in Palm Springs at Sunshine Court.

They have just returned from an extended trip "Down Under," seeing most of New Zealand and Australia, as well as attending the Olympics.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hotchkiss are philatelists with a valuable stamp collection that is kept in the vaults of a San Francisco bank. They distribute duplicates to patients in hospitals, crippled children, veterans, and inmates of homes for the aged, for they believe stamp collecting gives many people an interest in life.

Anyone having stamps to exchange or give to a worthy cause may contact them at Sunshine Court, 343 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Luncheon to Show Styles For Easter

Opening the Easter activities at the Palm Springs Ranch Club will be the Easter Parade fashion show luncheon on Thursday, April 18, where spring fashions for men, women and children will be displayed. The luncheon will begin at 12:30, and large numbers of Ranch Club members and their guests will be present.

Leading Palm Springs apparel shops will present a preview of their spring finery.

On Easter Sunday there will be a Kiddie Easter Party, an Easter Egg Hunt with prizes for the participants and a Magic and Puppet show. Hamburgers and hot dogs will be available for those desiring them. The children of the members and their guests will assemble in the Rodeo Room at 11 a.m. to launch the hunt for the eggs and will return there after the hunt for the show.

All during Easter Week the Stan Ellison Quartet, featuring Clessa Williams, Duke Mitchell and his group and the Reno Rene Trio will entertain; and the weekly buffet brunch will feature a number of guest stars on Easter Sunday.

Ordinarily closed on Tuesdays, the Ranch Club will remain open on Tuesday, April 16, for the convenience of the many members and their guests who will be present during the entire Easter Week.

Chicken Salad

Here's a tasty switch on an old standby—chicken salad. To 1 cup of cooked, chopped chicken add 1/2 cup each of crumbled, crisp bacon and diced celery. Toss with cooked salad dressing. For a fancy touch, serve the salad in a tomato cup, or cooked artichoke, from which the choke has been removed.

Shovels and sled runners slide more easily if rubbed generously with soap.

Brunmarks
Host Party
For Seventy

The spotlighted flags of the United States and of Sweden greeted guests arriving Saturday night at the Walter Brunmark home at the top of China Canyon Road. The Brunmarks entertained around 70 at cocktails and dinner, with tables set up in the walled poolside area which has such a magnificent view of the Village below.

The Dorothy Rio trio of three lovely girls from Los Angeles, played during the evening.

The Santos-catered dinner was served buffet fashion.

Among the guests were the Brunmarks' houseguests the Harry Volks (he succeeded Uncle Ben Meyer as president of Union Bank and Trust Company), the Tom Mays, Gretchen and James Swinerton, the Tom Flemings, Billy Malouf, James Kempers, John Costellos, George Wheelers, S. P. Manasses, John McClures, Roy Hoffmans, Ed Fallgrens, George Robersons, Joe Froggatts, Earl Coffmans, Edith and Dick Edwards, Mari and Stewart Williams, the Randolph Cristies, Fred Albertsons and their daughter and son-in-law Jean and Pete Peck, who are down from Los Angeles for Easter vacation.

Also: Mrs. Charles Becker (he's in Illinois), Mrs. Belmont Sanchez, Mrs. Noble Banks, Mrs. Fred Karlen (he's in Tacoma), the Frank Purcells, Mrs. Gordon Prentice (he's home from the hospital now and improving), the Reuben Fleets, Vie and Bud Graves, the Walter Braunschweigers, Henry Dollards, Mrs. Austin McManus, Jock Williamson, Willis Lane, and more.

The Alabama Extension Service suggest this safe way to use an extension cord in basement, garage or attic. Run the cord through rubber fruit jar rings and then loop the rings over nails driven into the rafters.

Church to Hold Rummage Sale

The Religious Science Church will have a Thrift and Rummage Sale in the new Thrifty Stores building, Indian Avenue entrance, daily and evenings on April 25, 26, and 27.

Mrs. Frances Archer Walls is chairman, with Larry Foy as co-chairman.

The sale will offer good buys in electric appliances, household furnishings, clothing and shoes for the entire family.

Philip Waites
Host Dinner

San Franciscoans were in the honored spot when the Philip Waites entertained Saturday night. Seated with the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. John Gallois, who winter in Palm Springs with frequent trips to San Francisco; their houseguests, General James Jackman, U. S. Marine Corps retired, and Mrs. Jackman; Mrs. Nion Tucker, who with her sisters owns the San Francisco Chronicle, and Beth Scott. Following dinner the group all attended the Police Show.

The following afternoon, Sunday, Mrs. Tucker entertained this group with more of her Springs friends at a farewell party, as she leaves Tuesday for her San Francisco home after a six weeks holiday here.

Fresh Flowers

One of the nation's largest distributors of fresh flowers has a tip for the woman who receives them. Says a spokesman for Goldfarb Florists: when you receive flowers take care not to bruise them by laying the flowers on top of each other. Stand them in a bucket or lay them on a table with their heads separated and extending over the edge of the table.

Here's a menu item for Sunday breakfast or brunch: waffles dusted with confectioner's sugar and topped liberally with thawed, frozen strawberries.

Tasty dressing for fruit salads: combine 1/2 cup molasses, 1 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing and 3 tablespoons lemon juice. Mix well.

"HORSESHOE WORN BY OLD FASHIONED HORSE"

A long time ago, before anybody ever thought of Pari-Mutuels, people didn't know what to do with Horses, so they ate them. Then one day an Egyptian Farmer's wife broke her leg, so he hitched a Horse to his plow and ever since then the Horse has been working like a Horse. But let's face it. We live in a world that's gradually becoming mechanized and eventually the Horse will disappear completely. At least it will unless we do something to preserve this Noble Beast. My suggestion is to have all animal lovers get rid of their present pets and adopt Horses before it's too late. This plan will not only insure the future of the Horse but it'll also provide something that no coming Generation should be without. Cowboy Movies.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK — As certain as peanuts and soda pop—things that are bound to happen as the baseball season swings into high gear today:

As tradition demands, the ump's will yell "play ball" and then stow that phrase away for another year.

Casey Stengel will exude confidence and worry privately about Mickey Mantle's brittle legs.

Some guy who is "home sick" will get fired because his boss saw him at the ball park on television.

I'm a cinch to drop mustard on my one good necktie.

A player who goes for the horse collar will alibi that this early in the spring the pitchers still are ahead of the hitters.

A PITCHER who is shelled out will complain that there's more "ackrabbit" in the ball than ever.

Ted Williams still is something to see even if he strikes out four times.

A rookie will admit to all and mostly sundry that "they sure pitch different up here."

A rookie pitcher will admit in battered dejection that "the hitters sure are harder to fool up here."

Some otherwise sane character will tear his trousers and scuff his shoes scrambling for a foul ball, and then wave it wildly as complete proof of his idiosyncrasy.

Another is a cinch to get belted by a ball and wind up back in his seat with a big white patch on his noggin.

A VETERAN will hit big from memory and predict that his new stance is going to pay off in one of his biggest years.

A cinch second division team will win a couple in a row and the manager will confide to friends "we'll surprise a few people this year."

The first time Brooklyn loses the critics will start pointing out how much they miss Jackie Robinson.

A bushy will go four for four and steal two bases and they'll commerce comparing him to Ty Cobb. A month later he, too, will be back in Georgia.

And every guy who starts off the season with a home run will automatically be three games ahead of Babe Ruth's pace when he hit his record 60 in 1927.

Indians to Close Tennis Season Against Cougars

Because of the Easter vacation Palm Springs High School boys' tennis team will rest this week. They will meet Beaumont High here a week from tomorrow in the final game of the Riverside County League tennis season. They go into that game with a 6-0 win record.

To date Coach Nunan's lads have scored 54 points out of a possible 54 in six matches, winning three of them by sweeps, 9-0 and the other three by 8-1 margins.

The Indians are highly touted to dispose of Beaumont and win the RCL tennis crown with a clear record.

Georgia Tech Names Three Co-Captains

ATLANTA, Ga. — The Georgia Tech basketball team established a precedent today when it named three players as co-captains. They are Jim Johnson, Gary Phillips and Terry Randall.

CUBS HAVE BEST MARK

CHICAGO — The Chicago Cubs with a 35-21 record, have the best mark of any National League team in opening games. The St. Louis Cardinals have the poorest record with 22 wins and 34 losses.

Major Leaguers Start Action on All Fronts

Orioles Lead American for at Least a Day

President Tosses Out First Ball in One-Game Opener

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The major league pennant races start in earnest today after a presidential opener in which baseball put its worst foot forward. Some 250,000 fans are expected at the eight openers with primary interest focusing on the New York Yankee's attempt to make a fast getaway in quest of a third straight American League pennant and the Brooklyn Dodgers' embarking on what is figured to be another season-long National League battle with the Milwaukee Braves and Cincinnati Redlegs.

THE SEASON got off Monday to a somewhat ragged start when the Baltimore Orioles scored an 11-inning, 7-6 victory over the Washington Senators in a three-hour and 17 minute struggle marked by 26 hits and five errors. President Eisenhower tossed out two ceremonial "first balls" and looked like the best pitcher in the ball park until Billy Loes came along to pitch two scoreless innings and pick up the triumph.

Something more like big league competition is anticipated today and tonight from a schedule that has Washington at New York, Chicago at Cleveland, Boston at Baltimore and Detroit at Kansas City in the A. L., and Brooklyn at Philadelphia night, New York at Pittsburgh, Milwaukee at Chicago and St. Louis at Cincinnati in the N. L.

CASEY STENGEL, seeking his eighth pennant in nine years, sends 19-game winner Whitey Ford against the Senators, who are opening with Chuck Stobbs. Strikeout whiz Herb Score was Cleveland's choice to open for the Indians against Jack Harshman of the White Sox; Frank Sullivan or Tom Brewer is going for the Red Sox against the Orioles, and 21-game winner Frank Lary of the Tigers is facing Tom Morgan of the Athletics.

In the National League night opener, the Dodgers are sending 27-game winner Don Newcombe against Robin Roberts of the Phillies. The Dodgers will be without the services of PeeWee Reese in an opener for the first time in his career, expecting the war years, because of a strained back muscle. Don Zimmer, the Brooks' hard luck kid, is replacing him.

WARREN SPAHN, a 20-game winner last season, is handling the Braves' opening day mound chore against the Cubs' Bob Rush; Johnny Antonelli of the New York Giants is opposing Bob Friend of the Pirates and Vinegar Bend Mizell is hurling for the St. Louis Cardinals against surprise starter Johnny Klippstein of the Redlegs.

The races start with the Yankees a top-sided 2-5 pick in the A. L. and the Braves a slight choice in the N. L.

A crowd of 23,872 saw the Orioles finally beat out the Senators Monday when Dick Williams doubled, moved to third on a sacrifice fly by rookie outfielder Carl Povich.

DALLAS, Tex. — Margaret Chamberlaine (Wiffi) Smith, the freckled fledgling who was the latest of this country's top amateurs to join the play-for-pay golf brigade, has broken into the titlist class only four months after joining the tour.

The break-through for the husky former U.S. Curtis Cup ace came in the wind-blown $7,500 Dallas Women's Open golf tournament Monday when she parlayed a new set of clubs into a 72-hole total of 265 that bested all the veterans and added $1,316 to her bankroll. That boosted her three notches, to fourth, among the money winners with $3,990.42, one of the most auspicious starts of any of the lady amateurs who have chosen to play for keeps.

Reynolds, Hamilton Win at Thunderbird

Rally for 66 Saturday for Total of 134

Coming from behind Saturday with a best ball 66, Paul Reynolds, Thunderbird Country Club member, and his guest, Bones Hamilton of Stanford track fame, topped the annual Out of This World golf tournament at the club last weekend.

The tournament, for club members each with a guest, saw almost 200 golfers put on sizzling exhibitions Friday and Saturday. Reynolds and Hamilton wound up the first 18 Friday with 68, trailing by one stroke. Their 66 Saturday gave them a total 36-hole card of 134 for low gross prizes.

THEY ALSO TOOK the low net prize with a 117 for the two days play. Reynolds has a 7 handicap and Hamilton, a 6.

In second spot at the end of 36 holes were Bob Kenaston and his guest, Arthur Koontz. They had lead Friday night with a 67 but shot a 70 Saturday for a gross 137 and a net 118. Kenaston is a 11-handicapper and Koontz, 9. Hamilton is from Lakeside Country Club and Koontz from Riviera.

THIRD LOW GROSS went to Charles Price and George McAllister of Wilshire who carded a best ball 72-66-138.

Price, 14, and McAllister, 3, tied for third low net at 121 with Frank Harper, 7, and Frank Dythe, 13, (146-25-121), and Bob Howard, 13, and Bob Hodnick, 7, (141-20-121).

Hart Knocks Out Stevenson to Get Winning Touch

NEW YORK — Life was sweet again today for Garnet Sugar Hart.

The 21-year-old Philadelphia knockout artist regained his winning touch Monday night by stopping Willie Pineapple Stevenson of Boston in the seventh round of their widely-televised fight at St. Nicholas Arena.

It was Hart's 19th knockout in 23 fights and helped erase the memory of his sad Madison Square Garden debut last month when he was outpointed by Walter Byars, another Boston product.

Hart's heavier firepower started to take its toll in the sixth and just before the end of that session, Stevenson was flattened for a two-count by a wicked left hook. He hit the deck again for an eight-count midway in the seventh and, when another flurry of punches sent Willie reeling, referee Barney Felix halted the action at 2:53.

Year of Decision for Braves As Milwaukee Demands Flag

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UP)—The Milwaukee Braves, baseball's most successful team in history at the turnstiles, but runners-up in the standings two years in a row, opened their most critical season today since moving here from Boston four years ago.

Fans in Braveland expect a National League pennant this season, after the near-miss in 1956 when two losses in the final series with St. Louis gave the pennant to Brooklyn by one game.

THE BRAVES from Manager Fred Haney to the batboy are confident they can win the top prize. So confident they didn't make any trades or bring up any talented rookies from their farm teams to strengthen the two alleged weak spots in their lineup—second base and left field.

Critics to the contrary, the Braves' starting lineup today at Chicago was the same one used most of last season, including second baseman Danny O'Connell and left fielder Bobby Thomson.

THE CRITICS said the Braves would have to find replacements for O'Connell and Thomson if they hoped to cop the pennant.

Trades involving the pair were rumored many times during the winter, but nothing materialized. In spring drills, Haney gave newcomers a chance to dislodge the veterans, but none could make the grade.

Haney has said all along that he feels he can win with his 1956 lineup, despite criticism that it lacked "courage" in the clutch.

Pizarro Added to Roster of Braves

MILWAUKEE — Juan Pizarro, 19-year-old Puerto Rican left hander, was added today to the Milwaukee Braves' roster as a result of his fine showing during spring training.

The highly-touted rookie struck out 11 batters and allowed 19 hits in 19 innings of Grapefruit League play. He was added to the Braves' roster as a result of his fine showing during spring training.

Sherman Injured in Spill at Gulfstream

HALLANDALE, Fla. — Jockey Arthur Sherman of Brooklyn, N.Y., suffered a slight concussion Monday when his mount, Gold Rina, thru him shortly after the start of the first race at Gulfstream Park. He was taken to a hospital for observation and x-rays.

Local Swimmers Meet Riverside High Here Today

Going into their final dual meet before the Citrus Belt League finals, Coach Wayland Reynolds' Palm Springs High Swim team meets Riverside High here this afternoon.

The only time this year that the Indian tankmen finished second was against Riverside in a meet at the county seat early in the year. Since then they have swept aside all competition in the Citrus Belt League where they campaign instead of in the Riverside County League, their normal spot for all other sports. With one exception, RCL schools do not engage in the aquatic sport.

Angelo's Leads Mixed 4 League By Two Games

Angelo's of Palm Desert continued to lead in the Mixed 4 League at Palm Springs Bowling Academy, holding a 2-game edge over Desert Produce.

In Monday night's play, Desert Produce rolled the high team series with 1807 and high game with 626.

Nebby Neblung had high individual series with 533 and high individual game with 197 for the men and Billie Pepper rolled high series for the women with 503 and Dorothy Manthey high game with 195.

Standing of the teams as of this morning: Angelo's 33-19; Desert Produce, 31-21; K. W. Williams 29-23; Mance, 28-24; Jim Sharpe, 24-28; He-Shes, 11-41.

Urge Coombs Be Named for Hall of Fame

TRAPPE, Md. — Frank Home Run Baker declared today that ex-Philadelphia Athletic teammate Jack Coombs, the pitcher for whom he hit one of baseball's most famous home runs, "richly deserves" being voted into the game's Hall of Fame.

"No better pitcher ever walked out onto a mound," said the 76-year-old Baker of Coombs, who died Monday of a sudden heart attack in Palestine, Texas. "He was not only a great pitcher but a wonderful man. He certainly should be voted into the Hall of Fame."

Coombs, 74, was the most effective pitcher on an Athletic staff that included Eddie Plank and Chief Bender in 1910-11-12 and, with a 5-0 slate, was the most successful World Series hurler of the dead ball era. Coombs' World Series record is matched only by Herb Pennock and exceeded only by Lefty Gomez 6-0 slate. His 13 shutouts in 1910 is still the A.L. record.

Coombs had a record of 159 victories and 112 losses in the big leagues. He later coached the baseball team at Duke University for 26 years and in recent years held clinics for youngsters in Palestine, Tex.

Fullmer Puts in Busy Day, Plans Rest Tomorrow

CHICAGO — Gene Fullmer scheduled five rounds of sparring today and a day off Wednesday in training for his May 1 middleweight title defense against Sugar Ray Robinson.

Fullmer boosted his sparring drills to 28 rounds when he boxed six rounds against three partners Monday. He went two rounds each with Tommy Maddox, Chicago, Willie Dillon, Chicago, and John Brunetti of alt Lake City, Utah. Fullmer concentrated on counter and body punching in the drills while his partners emphasized uppercuts. One of the champion's partners, Jesse Poole, left camp because of injuries suffered in sparring with Fullmer.

Ensenada Yacht Race Entries End April 24

NEW PORT BEACH — George Michaud, general chairman of the 10th annual Newport Beach-Ensenada Yacht Race, warned Monday that entries for the 120-nautical mile run May 2 would close April 24.

Michaud said 135 entries had been received so far and that he expected more than 200. Last year there were 197 boats in the competition.

Stuart, Bilko Clash Tonight In Swat Dual

HOLLYWOOD — Home run sluggers Dick Stuart of Hollywood and Big Steve Bilko of Los Angeles will match four-ply blows tonight when their two teams clash at Gilmore Field in the first of a seven-game Pacific Coast League series.

Stuart and Bilko were baseball's mightiest home run hitters last season, when Stuart blasted 66 and Bilko 53. The Hollywood slugger has an impressive start so far this year with five round-trippers to Bilko's one.

Men Take Four Of Five Honors In Economy Run

SAN FRANCISCO — The Mobilgas Economy Run rolled on in its second lap today with the men leading the ladies as better drivers.

But the women drivers swept the fashion honors with a sunburst of spring-tinted motoring outfits. Probably never before has Easter Week blossomed forth with such a rainbow of costumes for long distance driving.

Leading the pack for the Mobilgas Sweepstakes Trophy as the driver of the automobile stingiest with gasoline was Mel Alsbury Jr. last year's sweepstakes winner. He was driving the 1957 version of the crown Imperial, like he light-footed to victory last year.

Including Alsbury, the men took four of the five first place honors in the Los Angeles to San Francisco leg—the first of four laps that carry the drivers of 24 of America's new 1957 stock cars a total of 1,568 miles to Sun Valley, Idaho.

Women Golfers Tee Off at San Gabriel

SAN GABRIEL — Thirty-two qualifiers were slated to tee off today in the championship flight of the 34th annual California State Women's Golf Championship.

Former tennis star Dorothy Workman, of the San Gabriel Country Club, carded a 77 Monday to win the qualifying medal of the tourney.

BRUNS START PRACTICE

LOS ANGELES — UCLA Football Coach Henry Red Sanders opened spring grid practice Monday with 67 players, all juniors and sophomores, turning out for elementary tackling and blocking exercises.

Blotter Sinks Hole in One to Lead JC Play

Fritz Blotter took the Junior Chamber of Commerce seriously when they announced their annual hole-in-one tournament for last weekend and this coming weekend. He did just that. He teed off, whacked the pill and it went into the cup without a stop.

So Blotter now leads the annual affair and unless someone can tie his feat next week, he's in as the 1957 winner.

A. A. McCray's best shot stopped just 4 1/4 inches from the cup and Sam Dietor had one 11 inches away.

Only two previous holes-in-one have been scored in the history of the annual tourney. The feat carries a $100 cash prize.

Many golfers entered the play last Saturday at Pat Martin's driving range on Highway 111—1255 East Palm Canyon Drive. The tourney will end this Saturday and Sunday.

Ray Chapman is chairman of the event for the JCs.

Indians Cut Down To 28 Players Today

CLEVELAND — The Cleveland Indians cut down to 28 players today when they sold outfielder Dave Pope and optioned pitchers Bud Daley and Hank Aguirre to San Diego in the Pacific Coast League. The Indians also signed outfielder Roger Maris, infielder Larry Raines and catcher Russ Nixon to major league contracts.

Jim Sharpe Real Estate

WAS OUT SCOUTING AROUND THE OTHER DAY and came across a real sleeper. This one has 100x150 lot with a nice large clean POOL—It's a 3 bedroom beauty made from small blocks—Has enclosed garage too—POOL is fenced for privacy—This owner is a real Rip Van Winkle because he's just put in new wall to wall carpets and is selling this place for only $16,000—and you make the terms.

ALSO FOUND A NEAR NEW 2 BEDROOM place with nice brick fireplace, just off Indian Avenue. Has real good financing with a $11,000 1st Trust Deed payable for $75 month including interest. That's cheaper than rent. If you have the $2250 down payment, steal this for $13,500.

LOTS OF HOUSES HAVE SOLD IN THE Deep Well area this past month. We still have three nice ones left that should sell soon. One is a 3 bedroom, 3 bath with large clean POOL—about 4 years old—only $34,500. The other is a 3 bedroom, 2 bath with POOL—Only $29,500 and then the other is a nice 3 bedroom, 2 bath without a pool for $28,500. Why not check these three values before buying.

LISTED A TRIPLEX in the Warm Sands area that has a NEW POOL just installed. The full price is so low that I'm afraid to print it because you may think it would be just some old junk, but it's not. $10,000 down will handle it and the rents will more than make the monthly payments.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE A HILLSIDE LOT in Little Tuscany? Well, I have one for only $5500. Submit.

ALSO HAVE TWO NICE VIEW LOTS IN ARABY—Both for $3650. Must be sold together.

City Authorizes Playground Test For Cielo Vista

City Council yesterday indicated that it would approve the expenditure of $90 during the next five weeks for supervision of non-school play at the new Cielo Vista school playground.

To have the playground open on weekdays for two hours in the afternoon and during the mornings on Saturday, the city is making a "test case" in furnishing supervised play to the youngsters of the Desert and Veterans tracts. The school district is cooperating in the move by furnishing the playgrounds and keeping the rest rooms open as well as having a custodian on duty during the hours of play.

League of Cities To Meet April 18

A meeting of the League of Cities of Riverside County has been scheduled for April 18 in Beaumont.

At the session there will be a discussion of county-wide matters including the election of the Board of Freeholders for a county charter, sales tax, and the proposed county building program.

Once Realtor, Always Realtor Is Experience of Phil Norton

Once a Realtor, always a Realtor. This is the experience of Phillip Norton, who has been active in general realty and subdivisions in Southern California since 1923, and who has earned much recognition in state and national real estate circles since that time. Norton recently purchased the Casa Blanca, 1342 South Palm Canyon Drive, and decided to again enter the real estate business, in Palm Springs. First, however, he awaited the granting of membership in the Palm Springs Real Estate Board before opening his office in an adjacent building to his hotel.

THIS WAS EXPEDITED by Frances Wilson, chairman of the membership committee, for Norton has compiled an outstanding record of real estate business. He has been a director for 17 years of the Los Angeles Real Estate Board, served as its president in 1938, is a lifetime director of the California Real Estate Association, was CREA convention chairman in 1936, was chairman of the convention committee for the National Association of Real Estate Boards convention in 1939. In 1940 he was awarded the Los Angeles Board's annual trophy.

Three Captains Named for New Moose Lodge

Villagers interested in the formation of a Palm Springs Moose Lodge were today urged to contact one of the three area organizational captains for information. Captains are Ora B. Phillips, telephone 8-3161; Jack Hill, 6442, and Daniel D. Murphy, 6261.

Moose officials said that 20 Village men have thus far signed up for the order and that at least 80 more are needed. Now 65 years old, the Loyal Order of Moose today takes a heavy part in the nation's youth activities with its "Citizens of Tomorrow" recreational programs.

Veteran Groups Urge Support Of Industries

The Coachella and Palo Verde Valley Veterans Employment Committee today urged its component organizations to support any movement designed to bring industry into the desert area.

The committee, seeking to broaden veteran employment fields, asked desert area veteran groups to follow the example of several communities which have already provided support for the movement.

Villager Killed In Auto Crash At Kanosh, Utah

Word was received here today of the death Sunday of Joseph J. Helbert, well-known trailer dweller at Blue Skies Trailer Park and prominent Santa Monica contractor.

Helbert, 56, was killed in a head-on auto crash on Highway 91, near Kanosh, Utah. The two occupants of the second car were also killed.

Helbert, a Blue Skies resident for the past three years, was returning to Palm Springs after visiting with relatives in Colorado.

"Uncle John" Is Coming To Town

Associated with Norton in his offices at 1342 South Palm Canyon Drive will be Jean Kernott.

Translator

added, the cost per family to be using the system will be approximately $4 a year.

It was pointed out by Merrill Brown, legal advisor for Translator, that under the corporate set up of the new television system, Translator Stations, Inc., is a non-profit organization and can obtain its funds for operation only from contributions, and no officer of the corporation draws salary, interest, or profit from the monies received.

CO-CHAIRMEN BOGART and Sodergren said today that it is very important that the initial fund drive be a big success because it will prove "beyond a shadow of a doubt that the residents of Palm Springs want the Translator Station."

Donations can be sent to George Ripley, treasurer, Translator Stations, Inc., Palm Springs.

High School P-TA To Meet Tonight, Film, Music Set

The Palm Springs Senior High School Parent Teacher Association will hold its monthly meeting at 8 p.m., Tuesday, April 16, at the high school cafeteria with Mrs. John Gallerani, president presiding.

Short business session will be held, followed by several selections by the 30 girl voice chorus under the direction of musical director Alex Hamond.

Paul Summit, special services director of the Palm Springs Unified School District, will show a film entitled, "Social Sex Attitudes in Adolescence," followed with a question and answer period.

All interested parents, teachers and students are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served.
